Suozzi Releases First TV Ad Ahead of Special Election: “Common Ground”

Glen Cove, NY - Former Congressman Tom Suozzi, today released his first television ad ahead of the February special election. The ad, entitled “Common Ground,” will begin airing today with a robust buy.

The TV ad highlights Suozzi’s record of working with Democrats and Republicans to tackle the problems the people of Nassau and Queens face.

The ad can be seen here.

A transcript of the TV ad “Common Ground” appears below:

VO: The ballot says Tom Suozzi is running to represent Syosset....

...Levittown...Douglaston...

The record says Tom represents a place you can't find on a map----called common ground.

TOM: “Let’s work together to solve the problems people face.”

VO: Tom wore a path across the aisle to provide better healthcare for our veterans...

Took on polluters to clean our air and water...

And led the fight to bring economic relief to suburban families.

So if you feel like saying hi...

You know where to find him.

TOM: “I’m Tom Suozzi, and I approve this message.”
