

“ My mother grew up in Queens. Maybe that’s why I’ve always been a fighter. One thing I do know: In Congress, I will always fight for Queens values and work to get things done. ”

Tom Suozzi: Tough and Honest, Like Queens

Tom Suozzi learned about hard work and serving others from his Italian immigrant father and Irish working-class mother who grew up in Queens. Those childhood lessons gave him the backbone to stand up for what's right, to care about his neighbors and to never blindly toe the party line.

When he represented Queens in Congress, Tom always put our families first. He didn't care if an idea came from a Democrat or from a Republican - if it was good for Queens - Tom fought to get it done. And he delivered.

In Congress, Tom Suozzi Bridged the Partisan Divide to Deliver for Queens

- ★ Immigration: Proposed a bipartisan solution, published in The New York Times, that secures the border and treats people humanely.
- ★ Public Safety: Fought to address the gun violence epidemic by co-sponsoring landmark background check legislation that keeps guns out of the hands of dangerous individuals.
- ★ Veterans: Worked to combat the mental health crisis afflicting our nation's veterans, which takes over 20 lives each day, by introducing the bipartisan Mental Health Services for All Veterans Act. Passed Honoring our PACT Act, which improved health care for veterans who were exposed to Agent Orange, and other toxic substances.
- ★ Affordability: Lowered the cost of insulin and other prescription drugs by passing groundbreaking healthcare legislation.
